

City (Pity) Life

Life in a modern city

Its' really such a pity

Lets' plan for a nice weekend

Close your thoughts, pack your bags

Load your camera, stuff your pockets

Begin the journey for a nice weekend

Leaving the city behind

Getting closer to the greens

Open the windows to feel the freshness

Leaving the concrete smoke well behind

Hear the birds chirping

Taste the freshwater from the streams

Trek along to see the mountains

Watch the sunset in the evening

Oh..finally its a saturday night and its' been long wait

Coming after six ghasly city nights

Wish to be a never ending night

Life in a modern city
